- The Thinking Ahead, My Life At The End project was developed through a focus group made up of individuals with developmental disabilities. Advocates from three California Regional Centers: Alta California, Eastern Los Angeles, and Golden Gate, came together to talk about healthcare treatment and related end of life decisions. They shared about what was important to them and what they would need to make informed end of life decisions. The workbook and DVD contains words, symbols and pictures that facilitate discussion and decision-making regarding individual values, goals, and treatment preferences at the end of life. The Workbook and DVD are both available in three languages [English, Spanish and Chinese] free of charge through the California Coalition for Compassionate Care - . <http://www.coalitionccc.org/thinking-ahead.php>. Digital PDF workbooks are available through California Department of Developmental Services - www.dds.ca.gov/ConsumerCorner/Home.cfm. See a video about the Thinking Ahead project and resource at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pcs8BBQCbbs>. A number of states have adapted this to fit their own state. So when you google the title, you'll see.
- People Planning Ahead: Communicating Healthcare and End-of-Life Wishes. Leigh Ann Kingsbury. People Planning Ahead provides a comprehensive and structured way to ensure that loved ones receive care respecting their wishes and conforming to their personal, cultural, and religious beliefs during times of chronic and terminal illness, or severe disability.
